

Templates

Template functionality offers reusability of a page design. Layout builder has been provided on this page and purpose of this page is to manage the layouts to save time on page creation time. Layout builder is effective for creating and editing layouts and adding components into the layouts.

1

List of Layouts

List of all the saved layouts, clicking on the list item shall show the Layout contents in the light gray area in the right pan.

2

List of Layout Columns

List of all the available columns

3

Layout Name

Layout Name

4

Save Layout

Clicking on this link shall save the layout, to save the new layout, name must be given and content must be dragged into the content area. otherwise layout will not be saved and alert will be shown.

5

Clear Button

Clicking on this button shall clear all the contents of content area. Care should be taken while clicking this button as the template builder does not have the Undo functionality and all the removed data will be lost.

Your Comments Here
